Happy New Year Quilters!

I'm so excited for the new year. I very seldom set New Year's resolutions, but this year I did! One of them is to finish one quilt for myself! Sounds silly I know. But a girls gotta do, what a girls gotta do!

The retreat is coming up on us very fast, are you ready? Liz and her crew have been very busy little bees. We are going to have an amazing retreat (again)! Hope to see you all there! Here's to an amazing 2014!

~Kim~

There are still a few classes waiting to be filled. Check the website for all class information and registration.

Registration fee is $15.00 which includes:

Meet the teachers, trunk shows,
Show-n-tell projects from past retreats.

All night sew Friday night with lots of door prizes.

Be sure to buy tickets for the Opportunity Quilt which will be drawn the last day of the retreat!

RETREAT TEACHER ASSISTANTS

We are in need of teacher's assistants at the retreat. The assistants help the teacher passing out material, collecting kit fees, un-sewing and ironing for students, and just about anything else the teacher may need. Please remember, this is not an opportunity to audit the class so don't plan to set up your sewing machine and sew along with the students. You will be there to help the teacher.

I will have a sign up at the general meeting Thursday, but if you would like to snag a spot with your favorite teacher or can't be at the meeting, please call or email me.

It's been a successful productive year. We've had excellent classes, humanitarian projects, quilt shows, block of the month tips, challenge quilt instructions, money donated, by-laws rewritten, and a well planned retreat. What a year it's been!!! Most importantly, we've made new friends, and had opportunities to create beautiful quilts.

Thank you for such a great year.
