Notes from our President:

I love new beginnings. The beginning of a new year, a new month, even a new week! Our quilt guild has a new beginning for the year in March. I am looking forward to serving with each of you this next year. Thanks for your vote of confidence as your new president for this year. Working together it should be a good one. I have wonderful officers to work with. We have met a couple of times now and they are on the ball and full of ideas. My husband and I have talked of retiring in a few years and where do we go is a big topic to discuss. He finally decided he just could not take me away from my quilting friends!

Thanks to all of you for being my friend. I look forward to this new year with each of you. ~LaRee

My committee Joyce Pohl and Dorothy Gurley and I hope to serve you with a smile and keep you well fed. If you'd like a recipe in the newsletter please send the recipe to me by e-mail. It has been asked from the floor to label your dishes. I will have place cards for you to fill out and place with your food when you sign in for your door prize.
