“My Irish Blessing” – LaRee Rees

May you always have strings attached.
May your bobbins be full until your seam is finished.

May you always find a quilting friend where ever you go.

May you have enough fabric to finish your quilt.

May your arm never be in a sling to prevent you from sewing.

May you always find that just right fabric for your quilt.

May your neighbors stay away when you are in your PJs sewing.

News from our President

Dear Quilters,

We have had another successful quilt retreat thanks to all of you and especially our retreat committee. It takes many hours of planning and carrying out those plans. Thanks so much. Next year will be our 10th anniversary hosting the retreat. Looking forward to having a special time next year.

Thank you for the card you signed and sent to me. My shoulder is doing great! Not as much damage as last year so it is healing very well. It is the infection in my bowel that has thrown me for a loop. Between infusions and strong antibiotics I hope all will be well. Thanks for all your thoughts and prayers and love. We have a great guild.

Thanks to all of you who helped chair our committees last year. Any organization cannot function without good committee chairs. Looking forward to working with some new and some old (not in age) members this year.

~LaRee

"Sunshine & Shadows"

Our hopes and prayers are with Carlene Reid as she continues to recuperate; she's in the Cedar City Kolob.

We also want LaRee to know we're glad she's doing better after a second shoulder surgery.
