Those who bring sunshine into the lives of others, cannot keep it from themselves. -Sir James M. Barrie, 1860-1937, British Playwright

FROM OUR PRESIDENT...

Dear Ones,

I can't tell you how much I appreciate all of you. The time and talents we give is beyond measure. I feel privileged to be a part of this guild.

Our Team Sew was a huge success. We had 25 members present. Thanks to Janet Dexter and Linda Dwyer for a fun filled day.

We are about to enter into a very busy time. I now would like you to concentrate on yourselves and your families in getting ready for the Holiday Season. LaRee has great classes planned and there is even a UFO Day this month. Make sure to look at the upcoming events in this newsletter.

Next month we will be nominating officers for the upcoming year. The election will actually take place at the December meeting. The new Officers will take place in March 2010.

Call Jean Fitzgerald to help with the opportunity quilt tickets. The tickets will be on sale at Granny's and at the Color Country Quilt Show at the Heritage Theater this month, and at our monthly meetings, as well. Don't forget to see our quilt show Oct. 23 & 24th at the Festival Hall-Heritage Theater. Please contact Judy Stolrow to enter your quilts in the show. This event is in conjunction with the Livestock Festival and is very well attended.

Have you registered for our January Retreat???? It's coming up fast, don't wait too long.....

Happy Quilting,

Julie Patrick

SUNSHINE & SHADOWS

Our sincere condolences go to Gloria Uehlein at this time. Her husband passed away on Sept 25, 2009 following a long illness.

TIPS & TECHNIQUES

Are You a Frugal Quilter?

1. There are lots of free patterns out there for beautiful hand-sewn tree ornaments for holidays. Scraps of fabric and batting are all you need!

Check these web pages out to get started:
